An Introduction to Judicial Review - Practice and Procedure

by Melanie Plimmer of Garden Court North Chambers

at

Pannone and Partners
123 Deansgate, Manchester M3 2BU

on

Thursday 23 February 2006 at 6.30pm

As part of our continuing programme of CPD-accredited talks, this seminar will focus on public law principles and public law 'wrongs' which form the basis of judicial review applications. The seminar will also provide an outline in taking and defending judicial review proceedings in light of the CPR.

Melanie is a barrister specialising in public law. She has nine years of experience in judicial review and appearing in the Administrative Court.

Tickets cost £5.00 including a glass of wine.

We look forward to seeing you there.
