

Garden Court North are pleased to announce the recent arrival of five new tenants:

Brigid Baillie (called 2007), criminal law practitioner, formerly of Cobden House Chambers, Matthew Stanbury (called 2004), public law practitioner, formerly of Bank House Chambers,
Sarah Daley, following successful completion of pupillage at Garden Court North Chambers, Bryony Poynor, following successful completion of pupillage at Garden Court Chambers, Camille Warren, following successful completion of pupillage at Doughty Street Chambers.

Want to join us?

Due to an ever increasing workload we would like to invite applications from experienced housing lawyers and practitioners who have an interest in housing law.

Applications should be submitted with CV and at least two references to the Tenancy Committee, Garden Court North Chambers, 22 Oxford Court, Manchester M2 3WQ. Closing date 30th April 2010.

Since 1996 Garden Court North has built and maintained an outstanding reputation for civil liberties and human rights work across the country. The regionalisation of the Administrative Court has brought further opportunities for access to justice in the North.

We work with leading solicitors, Law Centres, charities and other organisations representing the disadvantaged in society, across all our practice areas. We provide a comprehensive team of specialist advocates at all levels of experience offering a committed, approachable and high quality service.

Chambers operates an equal opportunities policy and is committed to diversity amongst its members. We are happy to make reasonable adjustments to enable disabled candidates to demonstrate their suitability for the position.

People's rights through justice
www.gcnchambers.co.uk